Representative Homer Mann Will The Sanitary Inspector Joins Hymen's &

There is one piece of legislation that Representative Homer Mann proposes to work of City Physician Coffin, played a little hard for when he takes his seat in the joke on his friends a week ago by quietly state legislature, and that is an amend-ment to the divorce laws of the state. Mrs. Emma Glover, of 1707 Harrison street, ment to the divorce laws of the state.

"The present laws are entirely too liberal," said Mr. Mann. "Why, Missouri is getting to be worse than Dakota or Oklahoma. People are actually coming here for the purpose of acquiring a residence with no other object in view than the securing of a divorce. I think the law should be amended so that Missouri will not acquire the reputation of a divorce state and I am going to try to have such an amendment passed."
